Next Review	Spring 2 2026

This Statement has been drawn up in accordance with the Education and Inspections Act 2006, and DfE guidance (The school behaviour policy: the role of the governing body) and the Equality Act 2010. It correlates with our behaviour policy and underpins our vision and values for behaviour at Fernhurst Primary School. The purpose of this statement is to provide guidance for the headteacher in drawing up the Fernhurst Primary School Behaviour Policy so that they reflect the shared aspirations and beliefs of governors, staff, parents and carers for the children in the school, as well as taking full account of law and guidance on behaviour matters. Staff should be confident that they have the governor's support when following this guidance.

This is a statement of principles, not practice: it is the responsibility of the headteacher to draw up the Behaviour Policies at Fernhurst Primary School, though they must take account of these principles when formulating this. The headteacher is also asked to take account of the guidance in DfE publication Behaviour and Discipline in Schools: a guide for headteachers and school staff (January 2022). The Behaviour Policies must be publicised, in writing, to staff, parents/carers and children each year. It must also appear on the school's website.

Our Behaviour Principles: reflect our school values, our restorative approach to supporting appropriate behaviour. Fernhurst is an inclusive school. Everyone should be free from discrimination, harassment, victimisation of any sort. Equity is when everyone gets what they need to achieve. The school will closely monitor minority groups, such as ethnic minorities, SEND or LGBTQ+ to ensure that there is no discrimination.

- Everyone has the right to feel safe all of the time.
- Bullying or harassment of any description is unacceptable even if it occurs outside normal school hours.
- Every pupil should be educated in an environment where they feel valued, listened to and respected
- Children should be encouraged to be accountable for their actions and the potential impact on themselves and others. Everyone should understand the impact of their actions on others.
- Consequences should enable a pupil to reflect on, and learn from a situation and to make reparation wherever possible.
- Children should be supported to build self-discipline, empathy and emotional resilience through the development of strong self-regulation systems.
- Adults in school should model, maintain, encourage and promote positive behaviour and the principles of fairness and justice.
- High expectations for positive behaviours and attitudes towards learning provide the foundations for our children to become confident, resilient and self-assured learners.

- The school should work in partnership with parents/carers to develop and promote positive behaviours - and seek advice from appropriate outside agencies wherever necessary.
- Exclusion from school is a last resort. Any exclusion should be issued in accordance with guidance from the Local Authority.

This written statement and the policies that are influenced by it apply to all pupils when in school, when engaged in extra-curricular activities such as educational trips and visits (residential and non-residential) and when travelling to and from school. The governors wish to emphasise that violence, threatening behaviour or abuse by pupils or parents, towards the school's staff, will not be tolerated.
